CPNI Procedures

Voicecom Telecommunications, LLC (“Voicecom”) has adopted and complies with the following operating procedures to protect the confidentiality of (1) information that relates to the quantity, technical configuration, type, destination, location, or amount of use of the telecommunications services to which its customers subscribe and (2) information contained in bills pertaining to telecommunications services that it provides to its customers (collectively, “Customer Proprietary Network Information” or “CPNI”) and to ensure that Voicecom complies with the Federal Communications Commission’s CPNI rules:

- Voicecom stores all CPNI on a secure computer network that is not accessible from the Internet.
- Voicecom does not use any CPNI for any marketing purpose.
- Voicecom does not use CPNI for any purpose other than (1) to provide the telecommunications service from which such information is derived, (2) to initiate, render, bill, and collect for such telecommunications services, and (3) to protect the rights or property of Voicecom, or to protect users of Voicecom’s services and other carriers from fraudulent, abusive, or unlawful use of, or subscription to, such services.
- Except as provided in the immediately preceding paragraph, Voicecom does not release any CPNI to third parties for any purpose except in response to legal process.
- Voicecom does not use, disclose or permit access to CPNI to identify or track customers that call competing service providers.
- Voicecom does not release any customer’s CPNI to that customer except after positive confirmation of the customer’s identity.
- Voicecom provides periodic training to its employees concerning the importance of maintaining the confidentiality of its customers’ CPNI and the required procedures for ensuring compliance with the CPNI rules.
- Voicecom employees are subject to disciplinary action, including termination in appropriate cases, for violations of Voicecom’s CPNI confidentiality policy.
- Any use or release of any CPNI by any Voicecom employee requires the approval of a supervisor who is knowledgeable concerning Voicecom’s CPNI policies and the requirements of the CPNI rules.
